EVALUATION SUMMARY -- 1989 FAEDS Conference October 1989 Orlando Florida

10 evaluations were received. The results of the numerical ratings, on a scale of 1 - 5 were as follows:

Relevance and overall effectiveness of sessions	4.3
Relevance and effectiveness of the exhibits	3.8
Effectiveness of the conference arrangements (registrations, hospitality, etc)	4.5
Choice of hotel and location of conference	3.9
Overall evaluation of the conference	4.4

Responses to free-form questions were as follows:

What was the strongest aspect of the conference?

- Excellent banquet speaker, should have been a day session
- Very informative sessions.
- Diversified program
- Diversification of topics
- Variety of presentation subject matter
- Share groups
- Meeting and sharing, as always
- Presentations on the latest technology
- Good organization, variety of topics, vender participation

What is in most need of improvement?

- Best one I have attended in years, therefore have no improvement suggestions
- Check for vendor/presenter needs ahead of time (i.e., telephone outlets for modems for remote communications)
- More vendors
- Temperature in meeting rooms
- Advanced agenda needs to spell out more clearly vendor presentations and fact that presentations will be made on whatever day
- Advanced publicity could be improved
